Dear Sirs. Your letter & 3 medals are to hand. In the future please send by post as much as possible and if you are obliged to send by Express put "Old medals of no commercial value, nominal value $ )". I had no great trouble to get the medals from the Chief. In fact - I am perhaps glad I had a chance to have the case judged. As I told you $18.50. No postage. I paid for express $0.37 cts - I send you $18.13 included

I put the money & letter in a second letter.
Hoping that you will receive the money in good order.

MONSIEUR,

J'ai l'honneur de vous annoncer que je viens de terminer la publication de la 2eme édition du Médaillier du Canada. L'ouvrage est beaucoup augmenté, corrigé, amélioré, etc. Tout ce qui est publié aujourd'hui forme un volume de 480 pages, illustré par 2170 gravures, dont 331 nouvelles et 353 vignettes faites à neuf. Pour des raisons tout à fait accidentelles (feu) cette édition ne dépasse pas 105 exemplaires; l'ouvrage publié dans de telles conditions coûte à son auteur un peu plus que $11.00 l'exemplaire. Le prix sera $5.00 l'exemplaire.

P. S.—Ceux qui veulent donner leur commande sont priés de la faire au plus tôt. Nous pensons que l'édition sera épuisée dans deux mois.

DEAR SIR,

I have the honor to inform you that I have just finished the 2nd issue of my Canadian Coin Cabinet. The Work has been improved in many ways; it now forms a book of over 480 pages, illustrated by 2170 cuts, 331 new ones not published before and 353 made new. For special reasons (fire) no more than 105 copies have been printed. The book printed in such conditions costs over $11.00 a copy, it will be sold at $5.00 each copy.

P.S.—Parties wishing to buy the book will please give their orders very soon as we expect that the whole issue will be out of print before long.
